

Year 8 Homework Task

You need to complete 100 credits of homework points for RE and Citizenship this half term.

You need to create a poster to be displayed in the classroom which outlines the three principles of democracy and the positives of living in a democratic country. You are not allowed more than 30 words. 20 credits	You need to research countries where freedom of speech is not allowed. Create a fact file on this country explaining what citizens are allowed and not allowed to do. 20 credits	You need to write a speech for an assembly to Year 6 students on the positives of living in a democratic country. Refer to the three principles of democracy in your speech. 30 credits
You need to create a blog which is called 'The Mighty Majesty'! On your blog you need to state why we are so lucky to have a monarchy in the UK. 20 credits	You need to create a blog which is called 'Our Heinous Highness'! On your blog you need to state why we are so unlucky to have a monarchy in the UK. 20 credits	You need to create a mood board which represents the community you live in. You need to make sure that each item/ colour/ image/ word on your mood board is explained in a commentary. 40 credits.
Find an article about teenage crime in Stockton on Tees. PMI this article (state the positives, negatives and interesting points raised). 20 credits	Create a film (via storyboard) which highlights the consequences of teenage crime. Your film needs to have a clear storyline and there needs to be a moral to it. 30 credits	You need to create the perfect cell for a young offender's institute. You can construct/ draw this. You must submit a commentary to support your choices for this cell...how will this cell help to stop teenagers reoffending? 40 credits